

E-learning Safe Use Policy

Dated: February 2021

Review Date: February 2022

Why is ICT systems access important?

ICT systems access in Manorway Independent School increases the opportunities for learners to access a wide range of resources in support of the curriculum and learning. It supports the professional work of staff and enhances the school's management information and business administration practice.

Access to Manorway Independent School network and the Internet is necessary for staff and learners. It is an entitlement for all learners as it helps them to develop a responsible and mature approach to accessing information.

This benefit includes:

- Access to world-wide educational resources including museums and Art galleries.
- Information and cultural exchanges between learners worldwide.
- News and current events.
- Cultural, social and leisure use in libraries, clubs and at home.
- Discussion with experts in many fields for learners and staff.
- Staff professional development - access to educational materials and good curriculum practice.
- Exchange of curriculum and administration data with the LA and DFE, using correct security procedures.

How will the School ensure Internet use provides effective learning?

- Curriculum planning will identify opportunities to enrich and extend learning activities via access to the Internet.
- Learners will be given clear objectives for internet use.
- Learners will be provided with access to relevant and suitable web resources.
- Learners will be informed that checks can be made on files held on the system.
- Learners using the Internet will be supervised appropriately.
- This will include filtering appropriate to the age of learners.
- The school will work with statutory Authorities and the Internet Service Provider to ensure systems to protect learners are regularly reviewed and improved.

How will learners be taught to assess Internet content?

- ICT teaching incorporates Internet content issues, for instance the value and credibility of web materials in relationship to other media.
- Learners will be taught to validate information before accepting it as true, and to discriminate between fact and opinion.

- When copying materials from the Web, learners will observe copyright and plagiarism rules.
- Learners will be made aware that the writer of an e-mail or the author of a Web page may not be the person claimed.
- Learners will be taught to expect a wider range of content, both in level and in audience, than is found in the school library or on TV.
- Learners will be encouraged to tell a teacher immediately if they encounter any material that makes them feel uncomfortable.
- Young Learners will be encouraged to use the Internet to enhance rather than replace existing methods of research.

How will Internet access be authorised?

- Internet access is a necessary part of the statutory curriculum. It is an entitlement for learners based on responsible use.
- Parents will be informed that young learners will be provided with monitored internet access.
- Learners must apply for Internet access individually, by agreeing to the Acceptable Use Policy.

How will the risks be assessed?

- In common with other media such as magazines, books and video, some material available via the Internet is unsuitable for learners. The School will supervise learners and take all reasonable precautions to ensure that users access only appropriate material. However, due to the international scale and linked nature of information available via the Internet, it is not possible to guarantee that unsuitable material will never appear on a terminal.
- The use of computer systems without permission or for purposes not agreed by the school could constitute a criminal offence under The Computer Misuse Act 1990.
- Methods to identify, assess and minimise risks will be reviewed
- Staff, parents, governing body members and advisers will work to establish agreements that every reasonable measure is being taken. The Head Teacher will ensure that the policy is implemented effectively.

How will the School ensure Internet access is safe?

- All users will be informed that Internet use will be monitored.
- The ICT technical leads will be responsible for checking Internet logs on a regular basis and reporting to the Head of School.
- Access to the Internet logs will be restricted to senior members of staff.
- Any failure of the filtering systems will be reported directly to the ICT technical team.
- The School reserves the right to remove access to any website it considers inappropriate.
- The School will work in partnership with parents; the statutory Authorities, DFE and the Internet Service Provider to ensure systems to protect learners are reviewed and improved.
- The ICT team will ensure that regular checks are made to ensure that the filtering methods selected are effective in practice.
- If staff or learners discover unsuitable sites, the URL (address) and content will be reported to the network manager.

- Any material that the School suspects is illegal will be referred to the appropriate authorities.
- The Internet is a communications medium that is freely available to any person. Wishing to publish a Website with no editorial intervention. While access to appropriate information should be encouraged.
- Learners will generally need protected access to the Internet. The level of protection will be appropriate to the needs of the learner.

How will the security of the School ICT system be maintained?

- The whole system will be reviewed with regard to threats to potential threats from Internet access.
- No personal data should be sent over the Internet unless it is encrypted or otherwise secured.
- Virus protection will be installed and updated regularly.
- Personal storage devices such as USB memory sticks, MP3 players, digital cameras & floppy discs may not be brought into school without specific permission and a virus check. Any Unauthorised items may be confiscated, placed in a secure area and returned to the user at the end of the school day.
- Devices that are taken and used away from the school will be subject to regular scrutiny to ensure that malicious applications do not breach network security systems.

How will e-mail be managed?

- Learners are expected to use e-mail.
- Communications with persons and organisations will be managed to ensure appropriate educational use and that the good name of the school is maintained.
- Learners may send and receive e-mail as part of planned lessons.

How will publishing on the Web be managed?

- The Head teacher will delegate editorial responsibility to a member of staff to ensure that content is accurate and quality of presentation is maintained.
- Web sites will comply with the school's guidelines for publications.
- Learners will be taught to publish for a wide range of audiences which might include governors, parents or young children.
- All material must be the author's own work, credit the sources used and state clearly the author's identity or status.
- The point of contact on the Web site will be the school address and telephone number.
- Home information or individual e-mail identities will not be published.
- Photographs published on the Web will not have full names attached and anonymity will be protected where necessary.

Social Media

- Social media sites such as Face book and Twitter can be used for learning purposes and sharing of good practice.
- Staff should not authorise friend or follow requests from learners.
